

Danny Vander Maten

Senior Vice President
Atlanta

Professional Experience

As a Senior Vice President of Tenant Advisory, Danny has seamlessly blended his decade-long foundation in finance and business operations with eight years of real estate expertise at Cresa.

Acknowledged in 2023 as a “Rising Star” within Cresa, Danny embodies the company’s core philosophy of “do the right thing” in every facet of his work.

As such, Danny believes that although he operates in commercial real estate as a transaction advisor his primary responsibility is to build and maintain trusting relationships with the individuals and organizations he proudly serves.

Danny is a proud husband to his college sweetheart, Becky, with whom he devotes nearly all of his “free time” with to raise their three beautiful children – Clyde, Ruthie Mae & Penny.
