

Ed Easterlin

Senior Vice President Atlanta

Professional Experience

Ed Easterlin, an Atlanta native, began his real estate career in 1980. Ed has focused 40 years of his career on tenant advocacy for clients. Ed's transaction experience includes managing and negotiating office and industrial leases, building sales/purchases, and sublease/disposition assignments.

Ed has represented clients in a diverse range of industries including insurance, financial services, construction/engineering, healthcare, consumer goods, and technology.

Ed's reputation for an innovative, methodical approach to research, analysis, negotiation and attention to detail has served his clients well. He consistently delivers unexpected value while protecting his clients' interests throughout the process.

Ed has a long-standing passion for community service. He is currently on the Board of Buckhead Christian Ministries, an organization that offers emergency assistance for Atlantans experiencing financial crises. He is also on the Board of LaAmistad, an organization preparing Latino students and families in Atlanta for academic success and life enrichment.
