

Steve Hanna

Senior Vice President Atlanta

Professional Experience

Steve Hanna, Senior Vice President, has over 23 years of experience representing tenants and building owners. Steve's primary responsibilities include site selection, lease/purchase/sale negotiations, and financial analysis. Steve began his career in commercial real estate with Trammel Crow, where he represented a wide range of office tenants including Bank of America, Union Planters, and United Healthcare in their Georgia corporate headquarter relocation to Johns Creek. In 2003, Steve founded Hanna Property Company to provide commercial real estate brokerage services to property owners and prospective tenants in Atlanta. Steve focuses on developing strategies that will increase profitability and create added value for his clients.

Steve is a graduate of the University of Georgia's Terry School of Business and is a Life Member of the Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors Million Dollar Club.

“Steve played a key role in finding the ideal office space for our company. Steve found us an office in a great location, negotiated a very attractive deal and delivered our office right on time. Steve proved to have extensive knowledge of the Atlanta business market and really knew his stuff. I'd hire Steve again for our commercial real estate needs.”
