

Neil Narcisenfeld

Senior Vice President

Professional Experience

Neil has over 30 years of experience exclusively representing occupiers throughout Suburban Maryland and Northern Virginia totaling more than 10 million square feet of transactions. His expertise includes strategic planning, lease negotiation, transaction analysis and space disposition.

After spending 22 years at Studley, Neil moved to Cushman & Wakefield for six years and was recently a Senior Vice President at Ezra Company prior to joining Cresa.

Clients

- Stateside Associates
- BioReliance Corp
- Thomson Reuters
- Verizon
- Starbucks Regional Office
- Fannie Mae
- NASDAQ
- MSCI
- Catalyst Rx
- United Payers & United Providers

Acknowledgements

Neil was recognized by the Washington Business Journal's Best Real Estate Deals for "Best Leasing Transaction in Suburban Maryland" for the sale of a 220,000 square foot office complex in Rockville, Maryland, and the subsequent leasing of the entire complex to Celera Corporation.

Education

Neil earned a bachelor's degree in business and marketing from the University of Maryland.

Contact

301.841.6543 office
301.461.1811 mobile
nnarcisenfeld@cresa.com

"We are most pleased with our return engagement with your firm...They were completely effective in helping us attain our goal to obtain a better location at half the cost...They are careful listeners and give every detail their attention."

George Elford, Director
Education Testing Services

