

John Fitzgerald

Senior Advisor, Project Management Boston

Professional Experience

John has over 19 years of experience in corporate facilities management, construction management, project management and relocation management of corporate projects. His facilities project management and relocation management experience include eight years with EMC Corporation during the construction of its corporate campus in Hopkinton, MA, as well as working on the relocation of its corporate headquarters in 2001.

Education

John earned his bachelor's degree from St. Anselm College in 1992.

Personal Interests

In his spare time, John enjoys playing golf and competing in amateur tournaments.

Contact

617.758.6035 office
508.507.1972 mobile
jfitzgerald@cresa.com