

Austin Leclerc

Senior Advisor

Professional Experience

Having a strong background in industrial construction, drilling, environmental regulation and project management, Austin spent his previous career operating his own business and providing consulting services for the oil and gas industry. Austin now offers strategic real estate advice exclusively to industrial property occupiers across a number of verticals. He takes pride in delivering a detail-oriented strategic approach to aligning real estate needs with his client's business objectives.

Affiliations

Austin is currently a licensed Associate with the Real Estate Council of Alberta (RECA).

Education

Bachelor of Commerce (BComm), Management, Western Sydney University, NSW Australia

Prior to University, Austin received a diploma in Business Administration, Marketing from St. Lawrence College In Kingston, Ontario

Contact

403.690.2001 mobile
aleclerc@cresa.com