

Michele George

Vice President, Project Management Chicago

Professional Experience

Michele George joined Cresa in 2007 bringing a decade of experience with her. Prior to joining Cresa, she served as the Midwest Regional Facilities Manager for more than 100 offices covering 13 states for First American Title Insurance Company. She provided site selection, lease review, budget and schedule development and management, building permit acquisition, design development and construction management. She developed regional standards in office design, business equipment, telephone and data cabling, and furniture procurement resulting in significant savings in operating costs and capital expenditures.

Michele's expertise has been applied to achieve client savings through value engineering and cost control methods. Projects are delivered successfully under budget and on schedule while maintaining scope.

Michele is a self-motivated, client-focused service provider who coordinates diverse talents and resources to service our customers. Her reputation has been built on providing service with integrity; outstanding quality; satisfaction of the customer; and maximization of cost savings.
