

Andrew Kelly

Senior Vice President
Chicago/Phoenix/Washington DC

Professional Experience

Andrew provides guidance and direction to a wide variety of companies seeking integrated solutions for their real estate portfolios. He is responsible for portfolio-wide development efforts and long-term client relationship management for a 13-person account team, which manages 10+ clients totaling more than 100 million square feet of currently occupied space.

Affiliations

Andrew served on the board of directors and as finance chair for Chicago's oldest child welfare organization, Chicago Child Care Society (now called Family Focus) from 2017-2020. He is also a competitive sailor and has served two terms as treasurer and one as the vice commodore on the board of directors for Columbia Yacht Club in Chicago. Professionally, Andrew served on the boards of two early-stage startup companies and is also a shareholder for a popular proptech company.

Education

Indiana University - Bloomington, Bachelor of Science in Real Estate Finance

Clients

Andrew and his team's clientele are Fortune 500 companies, and since forming in 2011, they have completed transactions in more than 200 cities globally, with a total value of more than $2 billion. They are recognized as one of the leading corporate tenant representation teams in the commercial real estate industry nationwide.

Contact

213.262.8225 mobile
akelly@cresa.com