

Stephanie Klein

Director
Cresa Lease Administration

Professional Experience

Stephanie Klein has nearly 10 years of experience in the real estate industry. She is responsible for revenue generation, account P&L management, profitability and overall financial performance for nearly 100 client accounts and oversight of a team of 40 people. Stephanie also oversees new account onboarding and transitions, including the management of project timelines and stakeholder interests along with coordination of internal resources to ensure account profitability and performance. She is recognized throughout the industry for her willingness to understand her clients' evolving needs and makes adjustments and process improvements to ensure alignment with their business objectives and preferences.

Prior to joining Cresa, Stephanie served as the Lease Administration Director for Cushman & Wakefield's New York tri-state region. She also maintains an outside role working for USA Today Sports and is published annually for her research on employment contracts and collateral income arrangements for NCAA college coaches and athletic directors.
