

Greg Burns

Principal
Dallas

Professional Experience

Greg Burns provides guidance and direction to a wide variety of office occupiers seeking integrated and comprehensive real estate solutions. He is an expert in representing non-profit, life sciences, healthcare and corporate clients with their real estate needs both locally and globally. Throughout his extensive 35-year career, Greg has specialized in executing complex transactions including corporate headquarters, strategic portfolio planning, relocations, site selection, sale-leasebacks and dispositions.

Clients

- Brinks Company
- Caris Life Sciences
- Texas Instruments
- WorkSuites

Affiliations

Greg is a licensed broker in Texas and Oklahoma. He has been recognized as a D CEO Power Broker, Dallas Business Journal Heavy Hitter and has represented transactions earning the Best Corporate Relocation, Best Deal and Best Office Transaction titles. Greg supports numerous charitable organizations, including Abiding Fathers Ministry and serving on the Prestonwood Pregnancy Center Board.

Education

Greg holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and certification in Real Estate from the Cox Business School at Southern Methodist University.

Contact

972.977.7200 direct
gburns@cresa.com

Expertise

- Nonprofit
- Healthcare
- Life Sciences
- Technology
- Financial Services
- Transaction Management