

Sharon Morrison, SIOR

Managing Principal, Texas
Dallas

Professional Experience

Sharon Morrison is Managing Principal over Texas, directly involved with Cresa's vision, growth and strategy for the region. With over three-decades of experience, Sharon has developed strategic real estate solutions for global brands on a regional, national and international basis with expertise in complex lease & sales negotiations, site selection, build-to-suits and portfolio management.

Sharon began her career in commercial real estate at The Staubach Company, where she helped launch an industrial focus and build it into a national practice. She repeated the effort at Transwestern on both the office and industrial side. In 2013, Sharon founded leading Texas-based tenant representation firm, esrp, where she served as CEO. esrp merged with Cresa and continues to fulfill a mutual focus of consultative and conflict-free tenant advisory services. Sharon's industry experience, passion, creativity and commitment to culture drive her to empower the Cresa teams throughout Texas and everyone she encounters professionally and personally.
