Professional Experience

As Principal at Cresa, Christopher provides guidance and direction to corporate occupiers seeking integrated and comprehensive real estate solutions. With over 20 years of experience in representing office and industrial occupiers across the globe, Christopher develops data-driven strategies centered around clients' business, financial and operational goals.

Christopher utilizes his background as a real estate attorney to advocate for his clients across a diverse array of industries. He has vast experience working with corporate tenants, including Fortune 1000, law firms, professional services, and life science companies. His specialties include strategic portfolio planning, corporate headquarters, global portfolio solutions, site selection, labor and location advisory analytics, renewals, expansions, sale-leasebacks, acquisitions and dispositions.

Affiliations

Christopher is a member of and has served on the Boards of numerous real estate organizations, including The Real Estate Council (TREC) and Urban Land Institute (ULI). He is a member of NAIOP Commercial Real Estate Development Association, Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM), the Dallas Bar Association (DBA) and the Society of Industrial and Office Realtors (SIOR). He is an alumni of Leadership Dallas, Class of 2018.

Education

Christopher received his Juris Doctorate from Texas A&M School of Law. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Law with a double-major in International Business & Global Affairs from the University of California Santa Barbara.
