

Marco Rodriguez

Vice President
Dallas

Professional Experience

Marco is part of Cresa's occupier-focused, industrial team, bringing 25 years of expertise in industrial distribution, supply chain and process improvement expertise. In his career, Marco has specialized in leasing and selling industrial properties, transacting land acquisitions, and facilitating investment sales. Fluent in Spanish, Marco's business experience, communication skills, and work ethic make him an asset to his clients and to Cresa.

Prior to Cresa served as a director with Mohr partners in Dallas, and worked with King Industrial Real Estate in Atlanta. Working in industrial distribution, Marco held senior positions at General Electric, Rexel and Würth, including managing $150 million in strategic accounts and leading a $60 million business.

Client Experience

- Argos
- Summit Materials
- Huber Engineered Materials

Affiliations

- KERA – North Texas Public Broadcasting, Director - Board of Directors
- Jackson County Habitat for Humanity, Former Board Member

Accolades

- Recipient of the prestigious Atlanta Commercial Board of Realtors Million Dollar Club Award: 2021 and 2022

Education

Marco earned his Bachelor of Engineering from the Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, NJ and holds a Leadership Certification from the University of Texas – McCombs School of Business.

Contact

915.449.0349
mrodriguez@cresa.com