

Patrick Hearst

Senior Advisor
Salt Lake City

Professional Experience

Patrick serves as the first point of contact for real estate and workplace decision makers to advise on site selection, occupancy planning, lease negotiation, financial analysis, workplace decisions, subleasing and flexible offices, portfolio management, and supply chain logistics.

Patrick advises companies with distributed employees to grow and manage their real estate portfolios. He also works with local companies to support both office and industrial transactions.

Ultimately, Patrick helps his clients decide where they need to be, how their space should work to serve their business, and how to secure the space with the best possible terms.

Clients

- Chime
- Upwork
- Full Harvest

Affiliations

Challenged Athletes Foundation: Junior Board Member

Education

University of California, Davis – Bachelor of Science and Environmental Education

Contact

801.413.3223 mobile
phearst@cresa.com