

Matthew Rosenberg

Vice President, Account Management

Sales Representative

Professional Experience

As an account manager, Matthew provides guidance and direction to a variety of companies and organizations seeking unique real estate solutions. He works with occupiers through implementation of strategic initiatives, portfolio strategy, and lease negotiations and serves as a primary client relationship contact for national and international accounts.

Matthew's expertise in lease negotiations and occupier-landlord relations, as well as his out-of-the-box approach to strategy, provide an added benefit to his clients.

Matthew is a seasoned tenant advocate with considerable real estate experience spanning Ontario and Quebec.
